The only question relating to this school now is dealt with in this Secretariat's file one about the recognition of the Sarada Vilas High School. The school is at present located in a portion of the Lansdowne Bazaar buildings and the recognition of the school has been subject to the authorities of the school obtaining a release of the present accommodation pending the construction of a building of their own. One of the conditions insisted on for the grant of recognition was the provision of a convenient and permanent site. It is noted that the management has been repeatedly pressing that the Trust Board has been approached to obtain the grant of a site in exchange for the one resumed by them and that building operations would commence as soon as the
